What We Do / Consulting Services / Enneagram

---

Enneagram

Enneagram consulting and workshops Enhance professional skill in behavioural leadership development, coaching, team climate management and other performance-focused areas of expertise. The Enneagram is a model of nine personality types that provides a process methodology for personal and professional development.

Professional Applications Sales Performance

Develops awareness and understanding of individual personality styles and behaviours under specific circumstances. This insight helps sales people manage challenging customers, grow client relationships and handle the closing process more smoothly, among other sales skills.

Leadership and Management Development

Enhances self-awareness and understanding of the intricate dynamics of individual and team management. Through self-development business professionals become more personally skilled and professionally effective as leaders.

Enneagram Coaching

As a coaching tool, the Enneagram is a guide for motivating and supporting professional development. The model is both effective and accessible to people committed to maximising their potential in their personal and professional lives.
