

Innovation Program

Harness the power of employee ideas. Encourage suggestions for new ways to improve processes, reduce costs, increase profits. Promote innovation. Recognise and reward creative solutions to improving business performance

An Innovation Program is a formal employee suggestion system that helps you tap into the big and small ideas that can lead to major business improvements. The program is structured on defined business objectives. Submission guidelines are clear and specific.

Ideas are evaluated in an open, transparent process. Strategic communications encourage participation. An Innovation Program delivers win-win benefits by adding work value to employees and financial value to the organisation.

How it works

From simple administrative efficiencies to sophisticated product enhancements, your employees are your best source for identifying cost savings and market opportunities. Make innovation the heart of your business.

Promote the innovative thinking that supports dynamic business development, continued market relevance and competitive advantage

Provide a structured mechanism for harnessing the added value employees bring to the organisation

Nurture an open, creative, inclusive culture that strengthens employee engagement and loyalty
